WELCOME FROM

THE REVD PREBENDARY DR BRIAN LEATHARD
RECTOR, ST LUKE'S & CHRIST CHURCH, CHELSEA

If you have been to the Charlie Waller Trust's Carol Service at St Luke's in a previous year, you will no doubt remember the huge Christmas tree, so kindly supplied by a generous parishioner which reaches high into the nave. This year, like in so many other parts of our lives, we're having to make changes, and one of those changes is to take that huge Christmas tree outside. Partly this reflects our sadness that we can't accommodate everyone in church safely. Yes, we do seat over 1,000 people in normal times, but this Christmas hardly feels normal and we have reduced our seating capacity severely. Partly, it is recognition that meeting up, in a group of no more than six, is still (at the time of writing) only allowed outside and partly it is to make the most important point of all, that Christmas is not cancelled. Not cancelled, but our celebration is changed.

At the heart of the Christmas story is something which is never cancelled - God's generous, self-giving love for his creation. God identifies with creation so completely that God is born into that creation in a human being, in all our frailty, mutual dependence and vulnerability. The birth of the Babe at Bethlehem is new creation, yes, but hewn out of eternal rock. The same is true of the work which you are supporting in the Charlie Waller Trust. It is not cancelled, but changed.

Yes, you are having to change the way you fundraise, the way you support and communicate, the way you appeal for help. We are having to change so much that has given shape and rhythm to our lives before Coronavirus, that the danger is we become blind to what really matters, where the core of our celebration, our commitment lies.

So take the Charlie Waller Trust outside, like our Christmas tree. Think and act creatively on behalf of the people who are the beneficiaries of your generosity and endeavour, the people who are your committed supporters, the people amongst whom you fundraise and advocate and tell your story in a changed way. For be sure that lighting up the Christmas tree outside is going to be seen by more people than the 1,000 we can usually accommodate inside at your Carol Service, as will this virtual celebration. Shine a light for the Charlie Waller Trust in an original way this year too. The need is great and so is the generosity of the human heart when people can see the light shining in the darkness.

You will be very welcome at any of our physical or recorded services over Christmas.

THANK YOU

Thank you so much for coming to our virtual carol service. It has been a challenging year for us all and we are more grateful than ever for your support.

Whether this is your first experience of our carol service or you've been coming to St Luke's or Bradfield College for a while, we offer you the warmest of welcomes.

This year the importance of looking after our mental health has come into even clearer focus, and our support for young people is more important than it's ever been.

We're talking mental health

At the Charlie Waller Trust we take a very practical approach to helping people stay mentally well. We provide evidence-based training, and we encourage people, especially the young, to talk about depression and other mental health problems.

Parents and carers

We offer targeted support to parents and carers whose children have mental health issues.

Students

Our mental health partnerships are helping over 60 colleges and universities embed a culture of mental wellbeing for students and staff alike.

Graduates

We help graduates look after their mental health in the challenging transition from university to work.

Teachers and pupils

We work with teachers and other school staff, giving them confidence to support the mental health needs of children and young people.

Employers

We equip employers with the knowledge and skills to support the mental wellbeing of their staff.

GPs and practice nurses

Our mental health training supports those in the front line of primary healthcare.

CHRISTMAS AT CHARLIE WALLER

Our Christmas cards and wellbeing calendar are available to buy on our website: charliewaller.org/christmas

OUR READERS

Jenna Coleman

Jenna is best known for her BAFTA-nominated performance as Clara in Dr Who and for playing the title role in ITV's Emmy-nominated series Victoria. She is currently filming a lead role in The Serpent for Netflix/BBC opposite Tahar Rahim and was most recently seen on stage at The Old Vic in All My Sons alongside Bill Pullman and Sally Field. Other recent credits include playing the lead role of Joanna in the critically acclaimed mini-series The Cry for the BBC, for which she was nominated for Best Actress at the International Emmy Awards.

Bishop Michael Doe

In 1994 Michael became the first Bishop of Swindon in the Diocese of Bristol. He went on to run the world mission agency, USPG. Now in retirement, he is the Preacher to Gray's Inn and an Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Southwark

Damian Lewis OBE

With an expansive list of diverse film, theatre and television credits, Golden Globe and Emmy Award-winning actor Damian Lewis is one of this generation's most respected and sought-after actors. Some of his career highlights include playing US Army Major Richard Winters in the HBO mini-series Band of Brothers, and US Marine Sergeant Nicholas Brody in the Showtime series Homeland, which earned him a Primetime Emmy Award and a Golden Globe Award. His performance as Henry VIII of England in Wolf Hall earned him his third Primetime Emmy nomination and fourth Golden Globe nomination. He recently played actor Steve McQueen in Once Upon a Time in Hollywood and can currently be seen in the Showtime series Billions.

Dick Moore

Dick has been a housemaster, English teacher, rugby coach and headmaster, and has a passionate interest in the emotional wellbeing of young people. He delivers talks across the UK on topics such as depression, anxiety, disordered eating, self-harm, stress and adolescent development. Dick is an instructor in Youth Mental Health First Aid and has spoken on behalf of the Charlie Waller Trust since 2013.

Chris Tarrant OBE

Chris first came onto our screens back in the 1970's on Tiswas with Lenny Henry, Spit the dog and co. He worked on this show for eight years before moving to Capital Radio where he worked for twenty years. He then hosted Tarrant On TV for ten years before joining Who Wants To Be A Millionaire which he hosted for 15 years. For the last seven years he's been filming Extreme Railways all round the world although obviously filming is on hold at the moment... "We were supposed to be filming in Mongolia and China last March" says Chris "thank goodness that was cancelled."

Phoebe Waller-Bridge

Phoebe Waller-Bridge is an English actress, producer, and writer. She created, wrote, and starred in the Channel 4 sitcom Crashing (2016) and the BBC comedy-drama series Fleabag (2016-2019). She was also the show-runner and executive producer for the first series of the BBC America thriller series Killing Eve (2018), which she adapted for television. Both Fleabag and Killing Eve have been named among the greatest television series of the 21st century by The Guardian. She has been a long standing supporter of the Trust.

Suki Waterhouse

Suki Waterhouse is an English actress known for her roles in Pokemon, The White Princess and Daisy Jones and the Six. Suki says she is delighted to support the Charlie Waller Trust and to be returning to St Luke's to read at their Annual Carol Service.

Our vision is a world where people understand and talk openly about depression, where young people know how to maintain wellbeing, and where the most appropriate treatment is available to everyone who needs it.

In organising this evening, the Trust would like to thank:

Welcome

Once in Royal David's City

Join in at home

Solo

Once in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby
In a manger for His bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

All

He came down to earth from Heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall:
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

All

And through all His wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey,
Love and watch the lowly maiden,
In whose gentle arms He lay;
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as He.

All

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him – but in Heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars His children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

A Politically Correct Christmas

God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen

Join in at home

God rest ye merry, gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay,
For Jesus Christ, our Saviour
Was born on Christmas day,
To save us all from Satan's power,
When we were gone astray,
O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy,
O tidings of comfort and joy

From God our Heavenly Father
A blessed angel came,
And unto certain shepherds
Brought tidings of the same,
How that in Bethlehem was born
The Son of God by name:
O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy,
O tidings of comfort and joy

The shepherds at those tidings
Rejoiced much in mind,
And left their flocks a-feeding,
In tempest, storm and wind,
And went to Bethlehem straightway
This blessed babe to find:
O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

Now to the Lord sing praises,
All you within this place,
And with true love and brotherhood
Each other now embrace;
This holy tide of Christmas
All other doth deface:
O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

It came upon the Midnight Clear

Join in at home

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, goodwill to men,
From heaven's all gracious King!"
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring;
O hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing.

Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold,
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendours fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

O Come, all ye Faithful

Join in at home

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant.

O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him,
Born the King of angels;

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord!

God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb;
Very God, Begotten not created;

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord!

Sing choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation
Sing all ye citizens of Heav'n above;
'Glory to God
In the highest.'

O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord!

Hark! The Herald Angels sing

Join in at home

Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled:
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.
Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Christ, by highest Heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold Him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb:
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,

Hail the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings;
Mild He lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Hark! The herald angels sing:
Glory to the new-born King.
